

strivings for his country and the whole world. It is profoundly sad. Surely such continued apparent waste of life and energy as is here depicted, and which has been going on in scores of lives working with the same intent ever since 1800, cannot go on for ever. It is interesting to note that the number of Irish voters (now 740,000) were reduced from 300,000 to but 26,000 at the time of Catholic emancipation.

Errors are inevitable in such a book, drawn from so many sources and so condensed; slips such as "Armagh," at page 95, for, we presume, "Athlone," should be seen to in the next issue; and it would relieve the feelings of some readers if "huge" were not so often used.

Would You Like to Be Guided in a Helpful, Instructive
 Course of Reading approved by

Lyman Abbott, D.D., Edward Everett Hale, D.D., James H. Carlisle, LL.D., and other eminent men?

More than 60,000 persons are pursuing such a course under the direction of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle. We quote a few words from these students:

"Many a lonely hour has been cheered, and thought and memory turned into new and delightful channels by these readings. I hope to be better and stronger intellectually for the hours spent with my books."—New York City.

"I regret that I could not have had the advantage of such a course in early life; but it has brought so much comfort and happiness that I rejoice in the blessing, even though it came to me a quarter of a century late."—Maine.

THE GALLERY OF A RANDOM COLLECTOR. By Clinton Ross, author of 'The Silent Workman.' 16mo, cloth, $1.25.

"A dainty, handsomely printed volume, containing a dozen stories, every one of which is full of interest and entertainment. His stories are all of the best character, and the reader will lay them down well satisfied that he has been fully paid for the time he has spent in their company."—Christian at Work.

"A collection of sketches and stories deserving a word of special notice on account of the care with which they are all written, and a certain liveliness approaching here and there to Stevensonian distinction, which characterizes some. The author can tell an old-fashioned romantic love affair in a simple and pleasing fashion."—The Spectator (London).

"We have here an alcove of water-colors or first proofs, fresh, refined, illustrative; sketches from the memoirs or the memories of a keen observer whose mind is stored with curious, and who points us to them suggestively with the delicacy of a connoisseur, knowing but not eulogizing his good things overmuch."—Critic.

THE ROMANCE OF A POOR YOUNG

Man. By Octave Feuillet. With 100 illustrations and portrait of the author. From designs by Mouchot, engraved by Méaulle, large 4to, tapestry binding, in a box, $7.50.

The tapestry binding with stamped colored designs, the heavy richness of the paper, the beauty of the open typography, Mouchot's carefully studied and well drawn illustrations and their skilful and artistic engraving by Méaulle combine to make this edition everything that a fine edition of such a work should be.

A THOUSAND MILES UP THE NILE.

By Amelia B. Edwards. With upwards of 70 illustrations engraved on wood by G. Pearson, after finished drawings executed on the spot by the author. 2d edition, revised by the author. 8vo, cloth, $2.50.

This beautiful book by Amelia B. Edwards was published at a high price in 1876, by Messrs. Longmans & Co., and has for some years been out of print and scarce. It is now reproduced with the original plates at the suggestion of many friends of the charming author.

THE HANDY REFERENCE ATLAS

of the World. By John Bartholomew, F.R.G.S., etc. With 100 maps and plans, full geographical statistics, and a complete index. 12mo, cloth, $3; half morocco, $4; Persian morocco, $5.

The maps (strongly mounted on guards) are made from the latest surveys and give not only the most recent geographical and political information, but also the principal physical and commercial features of the world. Nearly fifty pages of the volume are devoted to clearly printed statistics, and a copious index ingeniously indicates both the map and exact spot on it where any given place can be found.

Its 12mo size enables the reader to readily consult it in his hand without recourse to stand or table, and permits of its being placed on the shelf with other library volumes.

A TRIP ROUND THE WORLD IN

1887-88. By W. S. Caine, M.P. With 250 original illustrations by John Pedder, H. Sheppard Dale, George Bickham, and the author. 12mo, cloth, $2.50.

The prominent position occupied by Mr. Caine in British politics and in social circles, and the kind reception which he met with both in the United States and Canada during his travels, encourage the publishers to look for a wide success of this book.

THE COUNTESS EVE. JOHN INGLESANT.

SIR PERCIVAL. A TEACHER OF THE VIOLIN, and Other Stories.
THE LITTLE SCHOOLMASTER MARK.

LIBRARY EDITION OF 'ROBERT ELSMERE.'

ROBERT ELSMERE. By Mrs. Humphry Ward, author of 'Miss Bretherton,' etc. New Library Edition. 2 vols. Globe 8vo. $3.

The New York Tribune says: "It is a brilliant transcript of the intellectual and religious agitation that is to-day going on among the clergy of all the churches with reference to the credibility of revelation. It is an epoch-making as well as an epoch-making book, because it at once reveals the religious doubt and unrest of the age and brings into a well-defined focus the vague speculations to which that doubt and unrest give life. It attempts to answer the question, 'Whither shall all these things tend?' In any case, it is an interesting sign of the times which no thoughtful man can afford to overlook."

MEMOIR OF PETER DE WINT. By Walter Armstrong, B.A., Oxon., author of 'Alfred Stevens,' 'Scottish Painters,' &c. With 24 full-page illustrations in Photogravure. Super royal 4to, $10.50.

"Mr. Walter Armstrong's short account of the life of De Wint is a model biography in its way, and the 24 charming photogravures with which the book is adorned illustrate in an admirable manner the different styles of this great artist."—London Times.

SCOTTISH PAINTERS: A Critical Study. By Walter Armstrong, B.A., author of 'Alfred Stevens,' &c. With many illustrations, including Fifteen Etchings, by Rajon, Geddes, C. O. Murray, and others. Folio, cloth, gilt, $7.50.

THE ART OF SKETCHING FROM NATURE. By Phillip H. Delamotte, Professor of Fine Arts in King's College, London, and Ladies' College, Kensington. With Examples from English Masters and well-known water-color Artists. Second Edition. With Twenty Colored Plates and numerous Wood Engravings. Folio, cloth, gilt tops, $7.50.

LANDSCAPE. By Philip Gilbert Hamerton, author of 'Etchings and Etchers,' 'The Graphic Arts,' &c., &c. Columbian 8vo, with about Fifty Illustrations. $35. Large-paper copies, with proofs of the illustrations, bound in vellum. Folio, $70.

"The illustrations of 'Landscape' are of a kind to which a special and distinguishing praise must be given. In complete artistic quality no book illustration of the day equals them. They are, as the preface asserts, at the high-water mark of what can be done in this vein, and in consonance with the purpose of the book.

The get-up of 'Landscape' is superlative; the art of book-making in our day can go no further."—Nation.

"In these various chapters the author sometimes wanders far away from his subject, but only to enrich it with learning and a wealth of wise reflection and sound sentiment, as well as with a literary grace and skill that will charm and delight the reader."—Week.

A NEW STORY BY MRS. MOLESWORTH.

A CHRISTMAS POSY. By Mrs. Molesworth, author of 'Carrots,' 'The Cuckoo Clock,' 'Tell Me a Story,' etc., etc. With Illustrations by Walter Crane, 16mo, $1.25.

"Mrs. Molesworth is in my opinion, considering the quantity and quality of her labors, the best story teller for children England has yet known. This is a bold statement, and requires substantiation. Mrs. Molesworth's great charm is her realism—realism, that is, in the purest and highest sense.—Edward Salmon in the Nineteenth Century.
